

Viking Christmas

V1

Christmas is coming and children will play
Excitement in the air and we hope the snow will stay
The air is full of holly and the lights are all around
There's laughter and happiness a wonderful sound

V2

But not is all it seems, Christmas will lose its shine
A family unlike any other comes alive at this time
Running down the mountain no children are safe
As they will grab the ones who have misbehaved

CH1

This Is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
Drinking mead from the horn with the family
We party the night away

This is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
We hail to the Gods
We're kindred to the core

V3

Giant evil trolls with a giant demonic cat (on the way)
Not exactly what you want on this holiday
But there is no cover and there is no escape
If they want your children they'll take them away

Gryla smells the naughty ones she has a knack
And as she tracks them down she shoves them in her sack
Then with her hooved feet she bounces up the mountain
Leaving the poor village mortified and trembling

CH2

This Is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
There's mead in the horn and the family
Is drinking the lot away

This is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
We sing and we dance and we laugh a lot
As Odin's on his way!

M8

A nice bit of baby stew is what Gryla will have
But her psycho killer cat is even more baddass
As he doesn't care if their Good or if they're bad
With his blood thirsty grin he'll devour them all

CH3

This Is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
No mead left now cuz the family
Have drunk the whole lot away

This is Viking Christmas
Happy holidays
We scream and we shout and we fight a lot
This is the Viking way
